Resolving itself into a slugging match, the game yesterday afternoon in the Broad Street Park between Richmond College and Randolph-Macon was captured by the locals, who ended the nine-inning contest with the long end of a 7 to 4 score. Neither side was able to get further than second in the first, though in the second Richmond managed to pass one man over the pan on an error and hit the third in the third, but the third inning was unproductive, but in the fourth two of the Spiders crawled over the slab, after which there was nothing doing until the sixth time around.

Here the visitors got busy and paled up one run, but it also proved fatal to them, permitting the home team to push four men over the plate.

Richmond landing on Blanton with such consistency, it was necessary for the Yellow Jackets to retire him and substitute Green, who held Gill's boys to the end of the game.

The Methodists slaughtered Baldwin in the seventh. The longest hits of the game were made at this point, and the visitors managed to bring three men home.

Clarke and Beale, in the eighth, tackled a high foul, and though they went to the end together, the Spiders' backsides came out of the scuffle with the ball safe and the side was retired.

Reville's hitting proved one of the features of the game.

A fair sized crowd witnessed the contest, practically all of the grandstand being filled. Summary:

VIRGINIA NO MATCH FOR PENNSYLVANIA

University Team Blanked in Game Against Quakers on Franklin Field—Whitmer Succeeds Grant in Box.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Philadelphia, Pa., May 2.—Penn's baseball team blanked Virginia, at Franklin Field, this afternoon, in a one-sided game, by a score of 19 to 0.

Grant, a southpaw, was used against the Quakers, and worked well until the third inning, when the Penn team got on to him for two hits, which, coupled with several errors and a wild pitch, gave the Quakers three runs.

Again in the sixth Grant got into difficulty. His team mates again failed to support him, and misplays gave Penn three more runs. In the seventh, after three hits had been made off Grant's delivery, and as many runs had crossed the plate, the southpaw was called from the mound, and Whitmer, the former West Chester Normal School pitcher, took up the burden.

He kept the Quakers from making any more runs.

The Virginia team arrived at Franklin Field without suits, and the game was delayed until Manager Scott could find sufficient clothing to lend the players. They used the freshmen uniforms.

Jefferson School Loses.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Charlottesville, Va., May 2.—Jefferson Academy added another victory to its list to-day, when it defeated the Jefferson School, 5 to 2.

Meadows for Cluster had his opportunity completely at his mercy until the ninth inning.

The Jefferson boys scored a double and a single in this inning and put two men over the plate. These were the only hits they made. Rixey, for Jefferson, had fine control and kept his hits well scattered. Buchanan, for Cluster, led in batting, securing five singles. McCann put up a good game at second. Bolling, on third, played a good game for Jefferson.

Batteries: Jefferson—Rixey and Maupin; C. S. A.—Meadows and Stillman.

Money School Team Wins from Cismont High School.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Kewick, Va., May 2.—The Money School baseball team defeated the Cismont High School on Friday afternoon on the latter's grounds. The visitors played a great uphill game from the start, and it was not until the eighth inning that they gained the lead, in that inning they connected with Butler's delivery, and before the smoke cleared away four runs had been made. The features of the game were the batting of F. W. Daniel and the pitching of M. H. Christian, who allowed the opposing batters at his mercy. Two lightning doubling plays by the Money School infield killed several threatened runs, one of these occurring in the ninth inning. The game was marked by light batting on both sides. The Cismont team put up a splendid game, but luck was against them. It was the Money boys' afternoon. The score was 3 to 6 in favor of Money School.

WALSH PITCHES ERRATIC GAME

Babb's Tars Lose to Lynchburg by Score of 6 to 4.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Norfolk, Va., May 2.—Although there was a good sprinkling of the fairer sex out to see the youngsters perform, it being the first ladies' day of the regular league season, their encouraging smiles and hand claps, handed out to the handsome Skipper and his almost as handsome Tars, were wasted sweethearts on the desert air, for Colonel Stockdale's husky bunch of swatters, with evidence of the Lynchburg, red clay clinging to their uniforms, snatched Sir Martin Walsh just opportunely enough to win by the score of 6 to 4.

It was a game made interesting by sharp hitting, although it was slowly played, with an admixture of bobbles and poor judgment that would have otherwise marred its considerably. The success of the visitors was principally due to a number of long drives they unbotled, and the fact that Bruck improved in his work as the game progressed, pulling out of holes nicely.

Walsh's work was somewhat erratic. Several times his work was brilliant, as in the first. When the first two men reached down, fanned the next fellow settled down, fanned the next two men, wisely walked Woolums, and retired the side on a high one to Law. Several other times he was very effective, but walked men, and in addition, long drives came that counted for runs. Bruck was effective against the Tars, except in the fifth, when a couple of drives were registered in succession. The other hits of the locals were kept well scattered. The score:

RECORD PRICE FOR BERRIES.

Recent Sales Surpass Any Values Ever Known Before.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Wilmington, N. C., May 2.—Special reports received in this city are to the effect that a carload of Klondike variety of strawberries sold at Mt. Tabor last Friday at the record price of $8 per crate. This is the world's record for strawberries, and surpasses anything ever known before. It is reported also that a few crates of the same species of Klondike sold at the high-water mark last week at $10.00 per crate. These figures are not average values of strawberries at this time, but show something as to values just now, the average values being around $4 per crate. Something like seventy-five to eighty carloads of berries went forward yesterday in refrigerator cars, with eight to ten carloads by express. Reports show that vines are well loaded with berries, and still maintaining with every indication of a highly profitable crop this season. Rain is everywhere needed.
